MICHIGAN COLLEGIATE VIRTUAL JOB FAIR

April 14 - 25, 2008

www.MichiganVirtualJobFair.org

24/7

Free to Students and Alumni! Over 150 employers in the past!

Who: Graduating seniors and alumni seeking full-time, professional positions or students looking for internship, co-op, or part-time career-related jobs.

What: Michigan Collegiate Virtual Job Fair. An opportunity for job seekers to view employer "virtual" booths which include job postings, company information and contact data 24/7. Candidates interface with employers via the Internet through private virtual interviews.

Where: From the comfort of your home or wherever you have internet access.

How: It's FREE and it's EASY. Interested participants visit www.MichiganVirtualJobFair.org April 14 - 25, 2008 and submit their résumé to job postings via the website. Ideally posting during the first week will give you the best advantage. Beginning April 14, 2008, candidates can interface with employers in virtual interviews. Website also contains frequently asked questions/answers and key contacts.

Michigan colleges and universities coming together for the MCVJF are proud to announce their involvement in the annual Michigan Collegiate Virtual Job Fair.

Sponsoring Schools:

Central Michigan University, Lawrence Tech University, Macomb Community College

Michigan State University, Oakland University, University of Michigan-Dearborn and Walsh College
